PRINCIPAL'S THOUGHTS

With another home learning week drawing to an end I have been reminded this week how remarkable and adaptable our community truly is! We have seen some big changes in the way we present learning (great job by our teachers), significant changes to how our students undertake their learning and our Parents have been able to support everything we do to get our community learning. I could not be prouder of everyone. Keep on being Strong and Smart!

Our prep classes are now full and we have a terrific number of pre-schoolers joining our Ranfurly Family for 2020. These children come from lots of different Kinder programs from across the district and we usually have them visiting our school by now to experience school life. Unfortunately due to the current restrictions we are not allowed to have visitors on site but we are planning for school visits and "Come and Try Experiences" for term 4. This timetable will be posted to all family with 2021 students.

Please be reminded if you have your child coming in 2021 it is vital that we get your enrolment forms in ASAP.

Classroom Meets is one of the ways we have planned for your child to stay connected to their peers and teacher, discuss school work and sometimes for just a general check in. It is vital that all parents support their children to access these meets, as keeping your child connected through this current restriction will help support their emotion wellbeing. Children (like we adults) thrive on their social relationships and when they are away from school, it makes it extremely hard to stay connected. Please make sure you encourage your child to tune in to these Google Meet opportunities.

This week marks week 5 of the current restrictions and week 8 of a 10 week term, this means we have one week to go of home learning (hopefully) and two weeks until term 3 holidays. Currently our school has not received any new information about the recommencement of onsite attendance so at present we will expect to have all children back for the final week of term. This will be terrific for everyone in our community.

Magpie Season is here!!! (not in the AFL) and our resident bomber is very active around the back gate of the school and in the rear park. Look up and look out for her as she protects her nest and area around it. This is a natural way for this bird to act and I hope you are all able to stay well clear. Good Luck !
